The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces 2015 Cadet of the Year

OTTAWA, ON (September 1, 2015) - The Air Cadet League of Canada congratulates WO2 Harrison Latham, from 510 Lions Squadron, in St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, who has been named the 2015 Royal Canadian Legion Air Cadet of the Year.

WO2 Latham has demonstrated a high level of leadership within his unit and outside. He is known to be a very hard working young man and has been involved with many activities such within the Air Cadet Program such as the Drill and Ceremonial Instructors Course, biathlon, marksmanship, and glider and power pilot courses. He plans to enroll at the Royal Military College in Kingston to pursue a degree in physics or space science.

The Royal Canadian Legion Air Cadet of the Year acts as the youth representative for the annual National Remembrance Day Ceremony, held in Ottawa, Ontario. During his time in Ottawa, WO2 Latham will be a member of the Vice-Regal Party for the National Remembrance Day Ceremonies and assist with the laying of the wreaths at the National War Memorial.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization which is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
