The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces 2019 Foundation of the Air Cadet League Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 15, 2019) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer Second Class (WO2) Evan Luttrell who has been awarded the $1,000.00 Foundation of the Air Cadet League Scholarship.

WO2 Luttrell, from 161 C.K. Beveridge Squadron in New Brunswick, has shown great leadership and determination in all aspects of his life. While maintaining an excellent academic record, in his spare time WO2 Luttrell also volunteers at his local gliding site and church. He has completed the Glider Scholarship and is a member of the military band. In lieu of his tremendous efforts, he was awarded the Royal Canadian Legion Cadet Medal of Excellence. WO2 Luttrell plans on attending the Moncton Flight College in the hopes of obtaining his commercial pilot license.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
