Her contributions will have a positive, profound, and lasting effect on the thousands of Air Cadets she has helped develop.

Suzanne Larivière (CP QVO)

Madame Larivière a donné beaucoup de temps au Programme des cadets soit comme membre de l'équipe militaire ou encore en tant que trésorière au sein du comité répondant de l'escadron 838. Elle a été une collaboratrice très méthodique et ordonnée, et a su tenir les finances rigoureusement.

Manuel Marot (CP QVO)

En reconnaissance de son dévouement exemplaire aux cadets de l'Air et plus spécifiquement à l'escadron 564 Bleriot. En plus de dédier beaucoup de son temps personnel, Monsieur Marot n'hésite jamais à mettre à profit son réseau de contacts pour aider au bon fonctionnement de l'escadron. Depuis son arrivée, l'implication de Monsieur Marot a permis au 564 Bleriot de prendre un nouvel envol et d'augmenter de façon significative son niveau d'inscription.

Katherine Martin (SK PC)

As a member of 34 Roland J Groome SSC, Katherine Martin has displayed dedication and support to the cadets and officers of the squadron. Her leadership and energy has provided the guidance to allow 34 Roland J Groome to remain one of the best SSCs in the province.

Nancy Matheson (PEI PC)

Ms. Nancy Matheson has been a great supporter of the air cadets on PEI. She continues to provide great leadership at the local level and to participate actively at the provincial level. This certificate is to recognize her dedication and hard work to promote the Air Cadet Movement.

Kendra Mellish (PEI PC)

The Certificate of Merit is presented to Kendra Mellish for her dedication to the Air Cadet Movement. She provides leadership in communication and public relations and accompanied the International Air Cadet Exchange contingent during their visit to Prince Edward Island.

Danielo Modestino (OPC)

Dan Modestino has been involved with the Air Cadet Program for six years, currently serving as the Sponsoring Committee chairperson for 540 Golden Hawks Squadron, in Oakville. He has been a leading force for positively changing the culture of the working relationship between the Committee and the Squadron staff members. His business acumen has contributed to the overwhelming success of the Committee in supporting the Squadron as it doubled its enrolment to over 200 cadets, and his personal commitment to attend every training night, staff meeting, and all mandatory and optional activities inspired.

Sonya Morency (CP QVO)

Madame Morency travaille au CRE de l'escadron 634 depuis 2012. Elle occupe le poste de secrétaire et a aussi géré L'Auto-Cadet de l'escadron. Elle est très dévouée et ne compte jamais ses heures. Parfois, elle prête main forte au Comité Régional pour des événements spéciaux. Les cadets sont une priorité pour elle. Le bien-être et le développement des cadets passent en premier plan.

Certificates of Honour Certificats d'honneur

William J. Cumming (OPC)

For two decades, Bill Cumming has taken a major leadership role within the Air Cadet League of Canada, to maintain and enhance the capacity of the Ontario Provincial Committee and its Sponsoring Committees in their support of Canada's premier youth organization. His long service as a governor, Executive Committee member, and National Delegate, has been marked by skillful effectiveness in all tasks that he has undertaken. Moreover, he has accomplished this with innate personal integrity, an unfailing willingness to collaborate, and an ability to compromise on all but the essential best interests of our Cadets.

Maj (Ret'd) James William (Bill) McCarthy CD (OPC)

Bill McCarthy has been the backbone of the Air Cadet Program in Northern Ontario for almost five decades! He served as Commanding Officer of 792 RCACS in the 1970s (named after him in 2009), then was assigned to the staff of the Arctic Watershed Gliding Centre in 1975. After retiring as Commander of the Centre in 1990, he continued to fly tow-planes, as a Civilian Instructor, for another decade. He has been an OPC Director since 1992, and he was elected as an OPC Life Member in 2004. His support to Squadrons in Northern Ontario has been tireless and he remains active on behalf of the Air Cadet League of Canada, in his 92nd year.

Douglas McLennan (MB PC)

Following a long and distinguished career in the Canadian Armed Forces, Douglas McLennan joined the Air Cadet League of Canada (Manitoba). Therein, he has served in several capacities, including terms as Vice-Chairman, and as Chairman. He has consistently proven himself to be a strong and effective proponent and supporter of the Air Cadet, exhibiting particular strength in working with the Canadian Armed Forces and Manitoba communities in resolving issues that impact upon the 24 Air Cadet Squadrons in Manitoba. Doug also serves on the League's National Aviation Committee. Accordingly, the Air Cadet League of Canada takes great pleasure in awarding its Certificate of Honour to Douglas McLennan.

Barry Rowan (PEI PC)

Mr. Barry Rowan has made a significant difference in the cadet movement for more than a decade. Barry has been, and continues to be the Secretary Treasurer, and the Security and Screening Representative of the PEI Provincial Committee. He is a well-respected member of the Executive, as he completes his responsibilities in a quiet and respectful manner. He administers all of the screening requests, and he provides careful guidance to Sponsoring Committees. He is always ready to help and never counts the hours. Barry's dedication and hard work has enabled the Provincial Committee to prosper, not only in providing leadership in managing the financial affairs, but also in providing a safe and secure environment for cadets in Prince Edward Island.
