

AGM / AGA St. John's

15.06.2019

Honours & Awards

Distinctions et récompenses

Certificates of Recognition
Certificats de reconnaissance

Certificates of Merit
Certificats de mérite

Certificates of Honour
Certificats d'honneur

President's Citations
Citations présidentielles

Officer of the Year
Officier de l'année

Director of the Year
Directeur de l'année

Medal of Honour
Médaille d'honneur

Certificates of Recognition

Certificats de reconnaissance

Dean Black (ON PC)

An effective catalyst in the support of the Air Cadet League and the Royal Canadian Air Cadets through promotion and advocacy in his position as Executive Director of the RCAF Association and Executive Editor of Airforce Magazine, he has, through his dedication and co-operation with the League's National Resources Generation Committee, raised awareness and thousands of dollars in support of the League's and Air Cadet programs. He is a great link and bridge between our two organizations. For this, the Air Cadet League of Canada is saying a massive thank you and is delighted to present Dean Black its Certificate of Recognition!

Curtis Bousfield (SK PC)

This League Director has been a significant contributor to 41 Hercules Squadron in SK. He was SSC Chair from 2015 to 2017. His company provides transportation at cost, and he donates his time to drive. He helped to organize and was a Gold Sponsor for the 75th anniversary for Regina Air Cadets. He secured a Fund Raiser who so far has raised $25,000. He promotes the Squadron and Air Cadets. He is Director of two squadrons and an active League Member. He has made significant contributions to Camp Saskadet. For his tremendous service to 41 Squadron and beyond, the Air Cadet League of Canada is most pleased and thankful to award Curtis Bousfield its Certificate of Recognition!

Lou M. Breithaupt (ON PC)

A member of 540 Golden Hawks Squadron staff since 2013, Civilian Instructor Lou Breithaupt has provided motivated Leadership to the Ground School program, producing exceptional results. All flying scholarship candidates have scored over 90% on their qualifying exams and the Squadron has received five PPS and five GPS billets each summer. His work in preparing Cadets for National Courses interviews, coordination of the Duke of Edinburgh program, and supporting weekend training and activities, also contributes significantly to an enhanced experience for Oakville Air Cadets. In appreciation of the dedicate and outstanding support given to the 540 Air Cadets, the Air Cadet League of Canada is delighted to award CI Breithaupt this Certificate of Recognition!

LCdr Alan W. Cann (SK PC)

Lieutenant-Commander Alan Cann has dedicated his heart and soul to the Air, Army and Sea Cadets of the Northwest Region. His passion for all things related to cadets, as well as his exemplary leadership skills, have enabled him to be in charge of all three elements in Saskatchewan. For more than 25 years of service to his country, and to all cadets, the Air Cadet League of Canada is pleased to award its Certificate of Recognition.

Robert W. Constable (NB PC)

This former accomplished CIC officer, now a lawyer, has been, pro bono, of very significant assistance to the NB PC on several occasions. He has overseen the process of Incorporation and Memorandum of Agreement of the PC. He has more recently reviewed the proposed Affiliation Agreement between the National League and the PCs vis-à-vis the CRA, and he has helped with the NB PC's bid for a new Business Number. He was made Honorary Legal Counsel of the NB PC in 1996. His counsel and generosity over the many years has been very much appreciated. For his great support to the NB PC and Air Cadet League elements in New Brunswick, the Air Cadet League of Canada is awarding Robert W. Constable its Certificate of Recognition.

Welley Gérard Cyr (QOV PC)

Ancien officier de carrière des Forces Armées canadiennes, M. Cyr a fait de généreux dons destinés aux cadets de l'Air des régions de l'Abitibi - Témiscamingue et Saguenay - Lac St-Jean en soutien au programme de vol de familiarisation motorisé, et pour la création de bourses d'études post-secondaires. La Ligue des cadets de l'Air du Canada lui remet avec grand plaisir un certificat de reconnaissance.

Capt Brain Earle, CD2 (NL PC)

This CIC officer from Newfoundland and Labrador has devoted 52 consecutive years of his life to the success of the Air Cadet Movement, including 16 years as the CO of 514 Squadron. He sought the development and enrichment of youth, striving always to help them achieve their best. He displayed leadership, integrity and commitment to the program at all times. The Air Cadet League of Canada salutes Captain Brian Earle and awards him its Certificate of Recognition.

Capt Andrea Hoiseth (SK PC)

This officer started her service as an SSC member. She proceeded to fill important officer positions on the way to becoming the CO. She has a positive caring disposition, and she takes time to mentor new cadets. She runs a strong cadet program, including many positive initiatives, such as curling and Effective Speaking. For her successful service to her cadets, squadron and community, the Air Cadet League of Canada is very pleased to award Captain Andrea Hoiseth its Certificate of Recognition.

Capt A. Wayne Morrison (SK PC)

A CIC Officer who has given thirty years of service to the Air Cadet Movement, of which 21 were as a Commanding Officer in the Davidson and Lanigan areas. His dedication to the Air Cadet Movement is an example to follow. The Air Cadet League of Canada Awards Captain (Ret'd) Wayne Morrison a Certificate of Recognition.

Richard O'Neill Sr (NL PC)

The Air Cadet League of Canada is well pleased and gratified that Rick O'Neill continues, as he has for many years, to facilitate and allow the Air Cadets of NL to better understand aviation, and to experience the thrill of flight, in his C-180 and Bell 206-B-III. For this the Air Cadet League of Canada is delighted to award Mr. O'Neill Sr. a Certificate of Recognition.

Steven B. Pellow (ON PC)

This Certificate of Recognition is presented to Director Steve Pellow in appreciation of his dedicated service as a League Director, and Sponsoring Committee Chair and Treasurer, with 340 Griffin Squadron in Port Elgin, since 2012. His work with the League followed eight years as a devoted and active Civilian Instructor. He was also of great assistance to the Regional Director in organizing a Regional structure in the Grey Bruce area. Steve Pellow is one of those rare individuals who will step in - willingly and enthusiastically - to do whatever needs to be done in support of the Air Cadet Program.

Capt Ken Reid (ON PC)

This recipient has been a CIC officer for 27 Years, and he has been employed in many important and different positions that (to exaggerate a bit - but not much) his Record of Service reads like a complete Organization Chart of the Central Region. He has worked at six Squadrons, including serving as CO at 104 Brantford for four years, at RGS in two Regions, spending a many years at two Summer Training Centres, at the RCIS, and at RCSU. It is known that he displays high dedication, co-operation and collaboration with the OPC each year during the period of National Courses selection processing, and in assisting the Provincial Recognition and Awards Committee. He has earned an enviable reputation within the Air Cadet community. It is therefore a distinct pleasure to award Captain Ken Reid an Air Cadet League Certificate of Recognition.

Lt(N) Scott Richards (PEI PC)

This officer has served in all three elements. He is a past CO of 323 Sqn. Now DCO of 53 Squadron, he has elevated the squadron's performance to national levels with excellence in Biathlon and Marksmanship. The Air Cadet League of Canada wishes to acknowledge his contribution and success by awarding Lt(N) Scott Richards its Certificate of Recognition.

CI Shannon Richards (PEI PC)

Tireless efforts toward 53 Squadron since 2008, she has, and does, put in countless hours with supply, as a band coach, with effective speaking, canteen, admin, writing letters of recommendation, ensuring that cadet apply for education bursaries and scholarships, which all attest to her superior performance. For that and her demonstrated service spirit, enthusiasm and personal conduct, the Air Cadet League of Canada awards CI Shannon Richards its Certificate of Recognition!

Capt Sharon Tambeau (ON PC)

This Commanding Officer brought her extensive experience, gained previously as a successful CO of two large squadrons over eight years, as well as a Regional Cadet Advisor for three years, to the "small market" squadron of 201 Dorchester. Here, she expanded the Squadron, and raised its overall level of proficiency. Just as remarkable, she brought her accomplished all-around capabilities to provide an enhanced experience and well-being for the Cadets of 201. National recognition is well-deserved by Captain Tambeau for her continuum of dedication as a Cadet parent, Civilian Instructor, CIC Officer, Commanding Officer of 80 Squadron Kitchener and 27 Squadron London. Her service to the Air Cadet Program is exemplary; thus, the Air Cadet League of Canada is, in admiration and appreciation, most pleased to award Captain Sharon Tambeau a National Certificate of Recognition.

Capt Christopher Wootton (NL PC)

Captain Chris Wootton has played an invaluable role in developing the cadet music program in Atlantic Canada. He works with all three elements, and he is held in the highest esteem by his peers, superiors and cadets. Furthermore, he has shown exceptional leadership qualities, both as Commanding Officer, and as a senior member of various Cadet Summer Training Centres in Atlantic Canada. Over the past thirty-eight years he has demonstrated his devotion to the principles of the Canadian Cadet Movement.

Certificates of Merit Certificats de mérite

Rhonda Barraclough (AB PC)

This Certificate of Merit is presented in recognition of exceptional performance and service to the Alberta Provincial Committee as Vice-Chairperson, and as the Sponsoring Committee Advisor for 230 (Athabaska) Squadron. A consummate professional and volunteer, she demonstrates extraordinary dedication and unwavering commitment to the Air Cadet Movement. She consistently performs her duties with skill, eagerness, ingenuity, and to the highest standards.

G. Bruce Davidson, CD (AB PC)

This Certificate of Merit is presented to Bruce Davidson in recognition of his 50 years of involvement with 294 (Chatham Kinsman) Squadron, and a remarkable 22 years as the Sponsoring Committee Chair. Under his long-term and steady leadership, the Squadron has underwritten and supported a wide range of special activities to enhance the experience of Chatham Air Cadets, which have included the Nijmegen March, Flight Fests with vintage aircraft, and Remembrance Day vigils at the Cenotaph. Last year, he led the Squadron's 75th Anniversary celebrations. Bruce's commitment to the Air Cadet Program is as inspirational as it is exemplary.

Capt Marc Doucette (PEI PC)

This Certificate of Merit is awarded to Marc Doucette in recognition of meritorious service, both as a former Commanding Officer of 741 (West Prince) Squadron, and now as a volunteer. His personal skill and knowledge of the cadet program have enabled him to perform well in all areas of the squadron, but especially in the mentoring and training of staff. He continues to dedicate much of his spare time to the Air Cadet Program to ensure that all cadets have every available opportunity to succeed.

Cletus Dunn (PEI NB)

As a sponsoring committee member and Air Cadet League volunteer for many years, Cletus Dunn has been influential in ensuring that the program is well-rounded, and that cadets have many opportunities to participate in provincial and national effective speaking competitions - with considerable success! Through his continuing efforts, cadets have not only learned of the benefits of volunteering, but also of their opportunities to contribute strongly to their community.

Dwight Eide, CD (ON PC)

This Certificate of Merit is presented to Dwight Eide, CD, in recognition of his valued and dedicated service to the League as a Director in Northern Ontario. He joined the OPC following a distinguished thirty-year career as a CIC Officer in the Cadet flying program, including 20 years as commander of the Gliding Centre in Iroquois Falls. Although assigned to 10 Timmins Kiwanis Squadron, Dwight has taken-on additional responsibilities as co-ordinator of Effective Speaking competitions and National Courses interview boards, and League representative at Annual Reviews and Summer Training graduation parades - in a part of Ontario where distances are measured in hours, not kilometres.

Rose-Anne Gladu (QOV PC)

La disponibilité et l'écoute de Mme Gladu font d'elle une membre appréciée par les membres des comités avec lesquels elle travaille en s'assurant de répondre à leurs besoins. Son ouverture d'esprit fait d'elle une membre importante au sein de notre organisation.

Mike W. Giovanetti (ON PC)

A new Air Cadet squadron requires at least one champion on each side of the League/DND partnership. 37 (Orville Hand) Squadron in Bradford was fortunate, therefore, to have Mike Giovanetti – President, Branch 521, Royal Canadian Legion – take on the challenge of being its first Sponsoring Committee Chairperson. Not only was he successful in having the Branch accept sponsorship of the Squadron with pride and enthusiasm, but he has also secured significant support from the Town of Bradford and from the community at large, and he has generated a qualified and effective Squadron Sponsoring Committee. His leadership and selfless dedication are gratefully acknowledged.

Daniel Marshall Hutt (ON PC)

In just two years, Dan Hutt has established himself as a leader and valued contributor on the OPC Board of Governors. Two decades after helping to establish one of Ontario's most successful Air Cadet Squadrons, he joined the provincial Board of Governors at a time that required urgent and expert guidance to restore its financial position. After a remarkably successful year as Treasurer, he has continued - as 1st Vice-Chair - to provide energetic and inspired leadership, in collaboration with the Chair and Executive Committee, to reshape, redirect, and enable the OPC to meet its ongoing challenges and commitments.

Deborah Kinny (QOV PC)

Debbie has contributed many hours to ensure the overall success of 75 and 742 squadrons. Her commitment to the squadrons, over many years, has ultimately led to many youths being able to benefit from the Air Cadet program. Debbie's positive attitude, organizational ability and willingness to dedicate countless hours to the squadron's overall success are what truly make her stand out amongst her peers.

Raquel Lincoln (MB PC)

Raquel Lincoln has been the driving force behind many outstanding initiatives within the Manitoba Provincial Committee, always striving to make any event or project the best it can be for the welfare of Cadets. Her dedication to the program and her tireless efforts in promoting cadets in Manitoba are without equal. She has consistently proven herself to be a progressive and influential voice as the Vice-Chair of the Effective Speaking Committee, and as the Vice-Chair MPC. She is fully-deserving of this award.

David K. Miller (ON PC)

This Certificate of Merit is presented to David Miller in appreciation and admiration for his exemplary and dedicated leadership at 700 David Homell VC Squadron. He is currently completing his eight year as chair of a stable and productive Sponsoring Committee, which supports a Squadron of never less than 200 Cadets. David is truly ubiquitous, in terms of his participation on parade nights, weekend training and community activities, and League provincial and regional meetings. He leads a model Sponsoring Committee and is a wonderful ambassador for the Program, both with community opinion makers, and the families that reflect 700's exceptional ethnic and socio-economic diversity.

Penny Peckham (NL PC)

Under challenging circumstances, Penny Peckham came to the aid of the Newfoundland and Labrador Provincial Committee when she agreed to assume the position of Vice Chair Central Region. While this presented some initial difficulties, she quickly adapted to her responsibilities, and she has proven herself to be a truly valuable asset to the NLPC.

Christopher A. Redfearn (ON PC)

This Certificate of Merit is presented to Chris Redfearn not only to recognize his tireless and exemplary work for fifteen years as the Sponsoring Committee Char of 3 Squadron in Strathroy, but also for his effective management of National Courses Interview Boards in Western Ontario, as well as for his new endeavours as a Squadron Director and secretary of the OPC Squadron Operations Council.

Lisa Roy-Sidock (ON PC)

This Certificate of Merit is presented to Lisa Roy-Sidock in appreciation and admiration for her leadership at 696 Golden Wing Squadron in Blind River, since 2011.

Assuming the role of Chair of the Sponsoring Committee in 2011, after several years as a parent volunteer, was a leap of faith. Her consistent fundraising efforts and level-headed management, through several periods of uncertainty over the viability of the Unit, however, has proven the value of her decision many times over. Her commitment to both the Air Cadet Program in Blind River and the youth of that community is exemplary.

Certificates of Honour Certificats d'honneur

William Cahill (NL PC)

During his years of involvement with the Canadian Cadet Organization, William Cahill has given much excellent service. Subsequent to his experience as an Air Cadet, he served as an officer with 510, 515, 508 and 292 Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadrons. Within the Newfoundland and Labrador Provincial Committee, he has served as Eastern Vice-Chair, PC Secretary, and Provincial Chair. Additionally, he has contributed significantly to the work of the National Committee concerned with Affiliation Agreements. Although he is a very busy young professional, he has given freely of his time and energy in support of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets, and to the Air Cadet League of Canada. It is therefore a pleasure to award the Certificate of Honour to William Cahill.

William Fowler (PEI PC)

Subsequent to his experience as an Air Cadet, he served in the Canadian Armed Forces for 25 years. In retirement, he has been very active in 200 Wing, Royal Canadian Air Force Association, and especially in its support of Royal Canadian Air Cadets. With the Prince Edward Island Provincial Committee, he has served as Aviation Chair, Vice-Chair, Chair, and Past-Chair. In recognition of his consistent display of the highest standards of professionalism and leadership, it is a pleasure to present the Certificate of Honour to William Fowler.

Peter Garton (SK PC)

Following a long and distinguished career in the Canadian Armed Forces, including three years with 41 Hercules RCACS, Peter Garton joined the Saskatchewan Provincial Committee, where his dedication and leadership skills proved him to be an invaluable asset. In recognition of his dedicated service, which has included a term as Saskatchewan Provincial Chair, and many years as Chair, Camp Saskadet, Peter Garton is awarded the Certificate of Honour.

Marc Lacroix (QOV PC)

Marc Lacroix fait partie de la famille des cadets de l'Air depuis sa jeunesse, et il a été reconnu comme un leader dès son arrivée dans le mouvement. Il consacre beaucoup de temps à ce programme jeunesse qui lui tient à cœur. Marc accepte toujours les défis avec optimisme et détermination afin de trouver des solutions. Ce sont ces qualités ainsi que ses nombreuses contributions qui nous amènent à lui accorder le Certificat d'honneur.

Norman Robert Macfie (NL PC)

Norman Macfie has been intimately involved with the Canadian Cadet Movement since 1984. During this time he has served as the Commanding Officer of both 510 (Lions) Squadron, and 880 (Terra Nova KofC) Squadron. Further, he has served in several capacities at both the Atlantic Region Gliding School, and the Greenwood Cadet Summer Training Centre. With the Newfoundland and Labrador Provincial Committee, he has served in many capacities from 2006 to the present time. In recognition for his dedicated service over a great number of years, the Air Cadet League of Canada takes pleasure in awarding its Certificate of Honour to Norman Macfie.

John E. Mayhew (ON PC)

This certificate is presented to John Mayhew in appreciation and recognition of his exemplary service to the Air Cadet movement. For more than two decades his outstanding dedication, professionalism and leadership have resulted in exceptionally meritorious service to our Air Cadets. Through the years John has served in a multitude of roles and been unstintingly generous with his time, personal effort and financial support. He is a most deserving recipient of the Air Cadet League of Canada, Certificate of Honour.

Douglas McLennan (MB PC)

From his beginning as an Air Cadet, throughout his Air Force career, and continuing with his service with the Manitoba Provincial Committee, Douglas McLennan has provided strong leadership, active involvement, and meritorious support of Royal Canadian Air Cadets. Accordingly, the Air Cadet League of Canada takes great pleasure in awarding its Certificate of Honour to him.

Bruce H. Morse (NS PC)

Bruce Morse has extensive experience with the Canadian Cadet Organization. He has served as a cadet, CIC Officer, Squadron Sponsor Committee member, Squadron Director, Regional Director, Executive member of the Nova Scotia Provincial Committee, and he continues to serve as the Nova Scotia Provincial Chair. His service of more than 16 years in the Air Cadet League of Canada, as well as his extensive experience in municipal affairs and Lions International, make him a well-deserved recipient of the Certificate of Honour

Garfield Pinsent (NL PC)

Garfield Pinsent has always given freely of his time in the interests of the Cadet Movement. He has served in many capacities in the Newfoundland and Labrador Provincial Committee. He has also served as a National Governor. As a result of his generous, valuable and continuing actions, over a considerable period of time, and over a wide provincial territory, the Air Cadet League of Canada is pleased to present its Certificate of Honour to Garfield Pinsent.

President's Citations Citations présidentielles

Penny Doern (BC PC)

The leadership provided by Penny Doern to the National Effective Speaking Committee has been exemplary, and it has taken the competition to new levels. Increased engagement of cadets throughout Canada has brought a “cadet voice” into deliberations about topics that are important to them. As a result, both cadets and adults involved in the program have been energized to build a foundation upon which the program can continue to grow and flourish.

Robert Parsons (NL PC)

This President's Citation is awarded to Robert Parsons in grateful recognition of his more than fifty years of service to the Air Cadet League of Canada. His contributions at every level of the League, from the Sponsoring Committee of 514 Squadron, to his service as National President, to his continuing contributions to the Newfoundland and Labrador Provincial Committee, demonstrates his life-long commitment to the program, and to the youth of Canada.

Officer of the Year Officier de l'année

Captain Mark Bromley (AB PC)

Captain Mark Bromley has continuously demonstrated the highest standard of excellence as Commanding Officer Of 570 (Sir Winston Churchill) RCACS. His leadership has been paramount in the success of the program, and his continued commitment to Cadets has been unprecedented. He is a leader amongst his peers within the North Wing, where he serves with the utmost accountability, responsibility, confidence and maturity. He strives for quality programming, and he demonstrates to everyone the requirement for superior leadership and guidance within the Canadian Cadet Organization. In recognition of his extraordinary performance, the Air Cadet League of Canada is pleased to declare him the 2019 Officer of the Year.

Director of the Year
Directeur de l'année

Thomas Taborowski (ON PC)

Thomas has provided exceptional service to the Air Cadet League of Canada at all levels and particularly over this past year as a senior member of the League Costing WG, the driving force behind the NACL Resource Generation Committee & League Partnerships Committee, a senior vice president of the NACL, and a strong supporter both as a member of the President's Club and through private and corporate donations he has arranged through his contacts and among others in the business community. He has worked tirelessly to support the ACL Career Fairs and has created countless industry and personal partnerships to the benefit of the ACL. Thomas has shown true leadership in every task he has participated, and is truly an outstanding member of the Air Cadet League Family.

Medal of Honour
Médaille d'honneur

Guy Albert (PEI PC)

As an Educator, Officer, and Volunteer with more than 50 years of effective leadership and dedicated service at local, provincial, and national levels of the Canadian Cadet Movement, the Air Cadet League of Canada wishes to acknowledge and recognize his exceptional contribution, which continues to this day. Accordingly, the Air Cadet League of Canada is most pleased to grant its highest award, the Medal of Honour, to Guy Albert.

Awards given after AGM

Stéphane Pellerin (NL CD)

Lieutenant Stéphane Pellerin illustrated his love of music and of the Air Cadet Program by organizing a combined squadron band for the 2019 National Annual General Meeting hosted by the Newfoundland & Labrador Provincial Committee. He recruited band members, created musical arrangements, scheduled months of practice time, and motivated the band to perform at a high standard. The composite band, made up of members from several squadrons, performed beautifully at the AGM. For such a commendable and successful project, the Air Cadet League of Canada is delighted to award Lieutenant Stéphane Pellerin its Certificate of Recognition.