

Facts

Who can volunteer?

Anyone over the age of 18 can volunteer to help.

Do I get paid?

This opportunity is strictly for volunteers who want to help their communities.

What do I need to join?

All of our volunteers must undergo a registration and screening process.

Do I have to give a certain amount of time?

No. Based on what position you choose to volunteer in, you can help as often as you like.

Do I need military or cadet experience?

No, you do not need a background in the Air Cadets. Our volunteers often learn best by experiencing the program as they go. They will be trained for certain jobs by other volunteers.

How does this benefit me?

Without our volunteers, this program would cease to exist. By helping out, our cadets and community benefit.

Squadron Sponsoring Committee

These volunteer positions are a must-have at a squadron. The Squadron Sponsoring Committee (SSC) operates the business function of the Squadron.

Possible Positions:

- Squadron Sponsor Chair
- Treasurer
- Vice-chair
- Secretary
- Member

These positions require regular meetings although they may not be required on a weekly basis.

The committee has the responsibility to provide a training location for cadets, paying the bills, fundraising, and providing necessary paperwork and recruiting for the program.

Volunteer

Volunteers work at the local squadron level and support the squadrons in various ways. Often the volunteers are parents of current and former cadets.

Possible positions:

- Canteen Organizer
- Fundraising
- Volunteer Drivers
- Event Support
- Tag Days Volunteers
- Effective Speaking

Director or Member

Directors and members must be nominated and approved as volunteers to help support their provincial committees.

There are several ways a director can support the organization.

League Representatives are members who are the liaison between the squadron sponsoring committee and provincial committee. These members are resources for the SSC. They have the ability to teach volunteers.

Members-at-Large are able to support the Air Cadet League in various capacities. While they are not responsible for a particular squadron, they may be responsible for contributing to other aspects of the program.
