The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces 2019 Dale Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 10, 2019) – The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer Second Class (WO2) Anne-Florence Lambert who has been awarded the $5,000.00 Robert Gordon Dale and Mrs. Mary Dale Scholarship.

WO2 Lambert, from 742 National Capital Squadron in Ottawa, Ontario, is an exceptionally dedicated and motivated cadet who strives for excellence in everything she does. Her confidence as a leader make her a role model and mentor to younger cadets. WO2 Lambert will be pursuing a degree in biomedical science at the University of Ottawa, in hopes of becoming a military dentist.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
