The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces

2020 ACL Foundation Post-Secondary Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 20, 2020) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer Second Class (WO2) Joshua Michael Lipoth who has been awarded the $1,000.00 ACL Foundation Post-Secondary Scholarship.

WO2 Lipoth is from 107 Spitfire, Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron. While maintaining an excellent academic record, WO2 Lipoth dedicated multiple hours as a pilot at the North Battleford Cadet Flying site and to National Marksmanship activities. In recognition of his tremendous efforts, WO2 Lipoth has won the Lord Strathcona Medal. WO2 Lipoth has applied at Saskatchewan Polytechnic and is enrolled in Computer Science Technology program.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
