The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces

2020 Birchall Post-Secondary Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 20, 2020) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer First Class (WO1) Megan Roy who has been awarded the $5,000.00 Birchall Post-Secondary Scholarship.

WO1 Roy is from 51 Canadian Aviation and Space Museum Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron. While maintaining an excellent academic record, WO1 Roy dedicates many hours to Biathlon and Duke of Edinburgh Student Council, school events, as well as participates in Remembrance Day events as a volunteer. She was also the recipient of the St-George medal for top staff – Bagotville CTC 2019. In recognition of her tremendous efforts, WO1 Roy has won the Duke of Edinburgh Award, the Royal Canadian Legion Cadet Medal of Excellence, the Lord Strathcona Medal, and the ANAVETS Cadet Medal of Merit. WO1 Roy has applied to RMC to pursue a career in engineering.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
