The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces

2020 Dale Post-Secondary Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 20, 2020) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer First Class (WO1) Megan Katherine Costain who has been awarded the $2,500.00 Dale Post-Secondary Scholarship.

WO1 Costain is from 527 Simonds, Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron. While maintaining a very good academic record, WO1 Costain completed the Glider Pilot Scholarships course and has spent over 160 hours participating in the Biathlon. In recognition of her tremendous efforts, WO1 Costain has won the Duke of Edinburgh Award, the Royal Canadian Legion Cadet Medal of Excellence, and the Lord Strathcona Medal. WO1 Costain has applied to the Memorial University of Newfoundland with a goal of becoming a paediatrician.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
