The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces

2020 Garbutt Family and Jim Goodhand Post-Secondary Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 20, 2020) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer Second Class (WO2) Samantha Keow who has been awarded the $1,300.00. These generous donors normally offer scholarships to recipients of flying scholarships. As the pandemic forced the cancellation of the cadet flying training summer camps, they decided to offer a post-secondary scholarship.

WO2 Keow is from 333 Lord Beaverbrook, Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron. While maintaining an excellent academic record, WO2 Keow completed the Glider Pilot Scholarship course, dedicated multiple hours to the Cadet Flying site as Flight Staff, and participated in the International Air Cadet Exchange in the Netherlands. In recognition of her tremendous efforts, WO2 Keow has won the Duke of Edinburgh Award, Royal Canadian Legion Cadet Medal of Excellence, and the Lord Strathcona Medal. WO2 Keow has applied to Western University and is enrolled in the Medical Science program with a goal to become a flight surgeon.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
