The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces

2020 CAE Post-Secondary Scholarship Recipient* [SEP]

OTTAWA, ON (July 20, 2020) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer Second Class (WO2) MacKenzie Rose Guillou-Cormier who has been awarded $2,500, one of the CAE Post-Secondary Scholarship.

WO2 Guillou-Cormier is from 176 Boeing, Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron. While maintaining a very good academic record, WO2 Guillou-Cormier is a musically accomplished cadet, as she had dedicated multiple hours to various band activities and has spent numerous hours as President and Camp Counsellor. In recognition of her tremendous efforts, WO2 Guillou-Cormier has won the Duke of Edinburgh Award, the Royal Canadian Legion Cadet Medal of Excellence, and the ANAVETS Cadet Medal of Merit. WO2 Guillou-Cormier has applied to the University of Manitoba to pursue a degree in Music Education.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.

*Due to the Covid-19 Pandemic, there were no Power Cadet summer training camp this year. However, CAE will continue to recognize outstanding cadets and provide 4 post-secondary scholarships of $2,500.
