The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces

2020 Legion National Foundation Post-Secondary Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 20, 2020) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer Second Class (WO2) Ashtyn Marie Wells who has been awarded the new $2,500.00 Legion National Foundation Post-Secondary Scholarship.

WO2 Wells is from 514 St John's Kinsmen, Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron. While maintaining a good academic record, WO2 Wells has obtained the Top Shooter award four years in a row. In recognition of her tremendous efforts, WO2 Wells has won the Duke of Edinburgh Award. WO2 Wells has applied to the Memorial University of Newfoundland with a goal of becoming a Doctor of Pharmacy.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
