The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces

2020 Thomas Colfer Post-Secondary Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 20, 2020) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer First Class (WO1) Marie-Audrey Roy who has been awarded the new $5,000.00 Thomas Colfer Post-Secondary Scholarship.

WO1 Roy is from 784 St. Vincent de Paul Squadron. While maintaining an excellent academic record, WO1 Roy participates in several community activities and has received multiple awards and mentions. In recognition of her tremendous efforts, WO1 Roy has won the Duke of Edinburgh Award, the [SEP] Royal Canadian Legion Cadet Medal of Excellence, and the Lord Strathcona Medal. WO1 Roy has applied to Lionel-Groulx College with a goal of becoming a nutritionist.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
