The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces

2020 ACL Foundation Post-Secondary Scholarship Recipient

OTTAWA, ON (July 20, 2020) - The Air Cadet League of Canada (ACL) congratulates Warrant Officer Second Class (WO2) Gabriel John Elder who has been awarded the $1,000.00 ACL Foundation Post-Secondary Scholarship.

WO2 Elder is from 909 Peregrine, Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron. While maintaining a very good academic record, WO2 Elder completed the Drill and Ceremonial Instructor course and dedicated multiple hours to the Drill Team, Marksmanship Team, First Aid Team and Survival Team. In recognition of his tremendous efforts, WO2 Elder has won the Duke of Edinburgh Award. WO2 Elder has applied to Red River College and is enrolled in Architectural Engineering Technology program.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian non-profit community based and volunteer led organization, which in collaboration with the Department of National Defence and our other partners, is dedicated to supporting the objectives of the Royal Canadian Air Cadet program, and to developing in youth the attributes of good citizenship and leadership; promoting physical fitness; and stimulating the interest of youth in the aviation and aerospace industry, including the air element of the Canadian Forces.
