The Air Cadet League of Canada has announced its Director of the Year

OTTAWA, ON (April 14, 2024) - In 1953 the Department of National Defence instituted the Director of the Year scroll. Since that time, it has been presented annually to a member of the Air Cadet League of Canada in appreciation of the meritorious manner in which the person has stimulated interest in the Air Cadet Movement through service to the Royal Canadian Air Cadets. This year's recipient is National Governor Thomas Sand, CD of St. Albert, Alberta.

Tom has demonstrated outstanding professional and leadership skills as a volunteer at all three levels of the Air Cadet League and has made a significant and outstanding contribution to the successful accomplishment of the mission of the League. For his contributions to the League and the Royal Canadian Air Cadets the Canadian Armed Forces and the Air Cadet League of Canada are proud to recognize Tom Sand as Director of the Year.

The award will be formally presented at the League's Annual General Meeting in June.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian volunteer non-profit organization with mission to promote and encourage the nation's youth to develop and maintain an interest in aviation, leadership and citizenship, in partnership with the Canadian Armed Forces and other organizations.
