The Air Cadet League of Canada Announces 2024 Royal Canadian Legion Cadet of the Year

OTTAWA, ON (May 28, 2024) – The Air Cadet League of Canada congratulates Warrant Officer First Class (WO1) Aiyana Barrieau, 517 Flt/Lt Graham Squadron, Nova Scotia, who has been named the 2024 Royal Canadian Legion Air Cadet of the Year.

WO1 Barrieau joined the squadron in 2018. She has consistently displayed remarkable initiative, dedication, and a strong commitment to excellence. She is a top-ranking cadet and a private pilot demonstrating proficiency and passion for aviation. She is teaching aviation at her squadron. She has achieved high grades in her academic pursuits, demonstrating her commitment to academic excellence alongside her other pursuits. She is committed to upholding the cadet program's standards of excellence, integrity and service to the community.

Congratulations WO1 Barrieau!

The Royal Canadian Legion Air Cadet of the Year recipient travels to Ottawa as a guest of the Royal Canadian Legion and to represent Air Cadets from across the country to attend the Nov. 11 Remembrance Day ceremony at the National War Memorial as part of the Vice-Regal Party. Our League presents her with a monetary bursary of $1,000.

The Air Cadet League of Canada is a civilian volunteer non-profit organization with mission to promote and encourage the nation's youth to develop and maintain an interest in aviation, leadership and citizenship, in partnership with the Canadian Armed Forces and other organizations.
